Our Fresh Kitchen Promise

Fresh food, prepared in three daily batches with disciplined hygiene and no previous-day cooked food.

- Food is cooked fresh three times a day in separate breakfast, lunch and dinner batches.
- Previous-day cooked food is never mixed into a fresh batch or served again.
- Only fresh, quality-checked vegetables, grains, dairy, eggs and meat are accepted.
- Filtered water is used for cooking, washing ingredients and beverages.
- Vegetarian and non-vegetarian ingredients, knives, boards and storage are kept separate.
- Kitchen staff follow handwashing, clean-uniform, hair-cover and glove rules.
- Worktops, utensils, equipment and high-touch areas are cleaned and sanitised after every service.
- Raw and cooked food is covered, labelled and stored at safe temperatures.
- Cooking oil is monitored and is not repeatedly reused beyond safe kitchen practice.
- Leftover food at the end of its approved service window is discarded safely.
- Every order is packed in clean, food-grade, properly sealed packaging.
- Regular pest-control, waste segregation and daily cleaning records are maintained.

Ordering & Pricing Notes

- All curry, sabzi, rice, biryani and comfort-meal prices are for one standard portion only.
- There is no half or full size. Chapatis are priced per piece; parathas are priced per serving.
- Menu availability depends on the day's production plan and fresh ingredient supply.
- Mutton and seafood biryanis are priced at ₹180 to maintain genuine protein portions and food quality.
- Introductory prices should be reviewed after 30 days against food cost, packaging, delivery and wastage.
- Taxes, delivery fees and customised office contracts may be charged separately where applicable.
- Customers should disclose allergies before ordering; kitchen handling reduces risk but cannot guarantee an allergen-free environment.

Simple, fresh and comforting North Indian food - cooked every day like a good home kitchen.
